FROM OUR

Martika

FILE:

The songs on her first album mostly say "Dance!" — but Martika says she knows there's more to life than the search for the perfect synthesized drumbeat. "I'm really moody," she says. "I'm complex in the sense that I'm not an easy person. There's a lot of depth that I don't necessarily show right off the bat. My head is usually in 20,000 places at the same time. There are times when I'm a girl who loves to laugh and giggle. Other times I get serious and concerned about world hunger, the ozone layer, the homeless and issues like that. And other times I just want to shop."

OH, I LIKED THE OLD NAME BETTER!

YEAH, WELL, SO DID WE. BUT THE RECORD IS YALE'S OLD (AND I MEAN OLD, LIKE EIGHTEEN-SOMETHING) HUMOR MAGAZINE. ACTUALLY, BACK IN THOSE DAYS THEY PROBABLY SPELLED IT 'HUMOUR'. REGARDLESS OF HOW OUR FORE-YALIES SPELLED (OR IS IT 'SPELT?') IT, WE'RE THE RECORD NOW. NOTHING ELSE HAS CHANGED — WE ARE STILL AFFILIATED WITH THE CHILI-DOG-CHOMPIN' (THANX RICK) YALE HERALD, AND WE ARE STILL REGISTERED WITH THE YALE COLLEGE DEAN'S ORIFICE. HA, HA, WE AMUSE OURSELVES. THE VIEWS AND SHITLESS ATTITUDE ARE SOLELY OUR OWN — PITY US.

Mr. Noriega's letter

HAPPY VALLEY PRISON

Dear Griffith Chemical Labs,

Now that I am spending much time in the States, I have been able to sample your fine product Clearacil. I love it! Not only does it dry up excess oil, it even removes those stubborn blackheads. And now they tell me it even keeps new pimples from popping up! Maybe if I had had some Clearacil then, I wouldn't be where I am now. Oh, well, that's the breaks. E. Bueno

Yours,
E. Bueno
