O Dearest Nancy,
 I love you, love you, love you love you, love you, love you. (This letter is a lot more romantic if sung repeatedly to the tune of Jesse's Girl.) Your working class dog

Dear NASA,
 It is a shame to see that the man selected as the first American to orbit the earth is also a member of the Keating Five. All I can say is we're embarrassed, too.

Concerned,
 TANG

Dear Unions,
 Strike this!

Benno

Towhimn it mea conertnf:
 This is the fierst letter I have ever types with mmy eywes closaed.
 Sircereslu,
 Edmunsf ar Hoewrton

Dear Bill,
 I love you like I love my little rubber ducky, "Squeaky."

Love,
 Jill

Dear Graduating Senior, We regret to inform you that we still do not have a job for you. Please stop calling; we are having the number changed. The FAX, too.

Good Luck,
 K-Mart

Dear Editors,
 We feel that Presidents' Day represents intolerable historical revisionism, allowing certain figures in our nation's history to be elevated far beyond their actual significance at the expense of other equally important but less celebrated individuals. If there must be such a holiday, we urge that other days be set aside to remember everyone else.

Resolutely,
 The Adlai Stevenson Fan Club

Dear Romeo,
 Wherefore don't thou ever check a pulse?

Juliet

Dear Narcissus,
 I love you. I dream about you every moment of the day. Come away with me and we can be happy forever.
 Sincerely,
 Narcissus

Dear Harold,
 I want to cover your body with strawberry ice cream, Cool Whip Lite, carmel syrup, and little candy sprinkles. Then I want to...actually, come to think of it, who needs you.
 Yours when I find the time,
 Cindy

Dear Provost Turner,
 We hope this Valentine's day that you are hit by Cupid's arrow. We also hope it rips out forty percent of your heart.
 Loves and kisses,
 the Sociology Department

Dear Students,
 All of our future films will be shown in Naples: the seats are more comfortable and the sound is better.
 Phoenix Film Society
