Dear Editors:
I'm a Senior at Yale looking for a job.
Have you seen one lately?

Dear Editors,
No, I am not copying the Superman

P.S. Oh, shit.

Dear Record,
Can you find the Chrysler Le Baron

Dear Yale Record:
I thought I should share with you a certain proverb which my father shared with me and his father with him before.
"Do not lie down with the sheep, for you shall wake up with fleece."
That's not true, is it?
Concerned,
Joachim the Herdsman and "Billy"

Dear Editor:
I think I'm going crazy. I can hear the voice of Eeyore when I listen to Whitney
Houston's "I Will Always Love You."
Help me,
Darion James

Dear everyone, everywhere:

Dear Editors:
If a Sharp's non-alcoholic beer has one-sixth of the alcohol in a regular beer and I just drank 36 of them, am I still okay to operate heavy machinery? If I can't, can I sue?

Just curious,
Jim Bob Libby
P.S. What if I get bloated?

Dear Bill,
I told you those saxophone lessons would pay off, didn't I?

Love,

Dear Editors:
The other day, I attached one of those
super-bounce balls to a bungee cord.
Now I can't make it stop.
Frustrated,
Mike Mozer
West Virginia

Editors:
Just from reading this letter, could you tell that I am wearing no underwear? It itches!

Have a good day,
Bob Higgins

Dear Editors,
Please Close This Door Sec... OW! Not
that securely, asshole.
Mr. Old Campus Voice-Door

Hey folks:
Here's an idea... how about putting up signs that say, "In case of fire, don't use elevator. Use water."
Sincerely,
M.H. Goldsmith

Dear staff:
Guess my name, Superfriends, or you'll

VICIOUS CYCLE

Ours is a vicious cycle
 This passion begins here
 Where it is hot and steamy
 I know you like it when I'm dirty
 One by one, the coins slide into the slot
 And then I start to feel the machanical rumbling
 Slowly churning beneath me
 Our rhythmic intensity increases steadily
 And I...I can feel myself becoming wet -
 Now I am drenched. In a whirl of disarray
 I am transported to another place.
 We tumble violently pressed against one another
 The heat you generate makes my temperature rise
 Until every drop of moisture disappears and at last
 Our passion ceases
 I lie curled up in a ball -
 Refreshed, renewed, clean
 And I yearn for the next time I'm Thrown between the sheets
 In your laundry basket.

—PENNER

ODE DE TOILETTE

Whene'er thy bold seduction calls,
 My heart of steel doth rust:
 Yet soon my trepidation's gone:
 Relieve myself I must.

The thrones of all the kings and queens
 That ruled the land and sea,
 Were never so commodious
 As oftentimes thou be.

When glut'nously I've drunk of mead,
 I kneel before thy Grace,
 And give to thee an offering—
 Then quaff more swill apace.

O! porcelain fair, so pure and chaste,
 Reveal thy pow'rs divine;
 Would that thou wouldst transmogrify
 Thy waters into wine!

Forgive my simple-minded praise,
 My rhymes so vile and rough;
 I know th'encumbrance of my girth
 Must sicken thee enough.
